About the Estate:

Schloss Vollrads, one of the world's oldest and most esteemed wine estates, has cultivated Riesling exclusively for over 800 years with unwavering dedication and care. A founding member of the VDP, the estate blends heritage with modern precision to craft wines of purity and joy. Its south-facing vineyards benefit from a unique terroir of Taunus quartzite, shale, and loess, enhanced by the Rhine's temperate influence and shelter from the Taunus mountains. Despite the extreme conditions of 2019, the estate produced Rieslings of exceptional quality—vibrant, expressive, and true to the character of their origin.

About the Region:

Rheingau is a small but highly prestigious region producing some of Germany's highest quality and most age worthy Rieslings. South-facing slopes, diverse soils, and the Taunus Mountains create ideal ripening conditions. Low yields and prestigious estates like Schloss Vollrads ensure wines of depth, elegance, and exceptional ageing potential.

About the Grape:

Riesling is a cold-hardy, late-ripening grape producing vibrant, high-quality wines from dry to sweet. It retains high acidity, develops complex aromas, and excels in botrytised styles due to its sugar potential and aromatic intensity.

About the Domaine:

Champagne Daniel Dumont, nestled in the heart of Rilly-La-Montagne's 1er Cru vineyards, is a family-run estate that harmonizes tradition, precision, and environmental care. Under the guidance of Jean-Michel Dumont, every stage of production—from vine to bottle—is managed in-house, ensuring authenticity and excellence. The domaine spans 10 hectares across seven villages, with a balanced mix of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, and Pinot Meunier. Sustainable viticulture and meticulous vineyard practices preserve soil health and optimize grape quality. As one of Champagne's few certified vine nurseries, Daniel Dumont also contributes to the region's future by cultivating over 200,000 grafted vines annually.

About the Region:

Champagne, a protected appellation in northeast France, produces the world's most prestigious sparkling wines. Strictly regulated by the Comité Champagne, its name and traditional method are legally safeguarded, setting the global benchmark for quality and authenticity in sparkling wine production.

About the Grapes:

Chardonnay brings finesse, longevity, and citrus-driven elegance; Pinot Noir adds structure, depth, and red fruit complexity; Meunier contributes approachability, roundness, and vibrant fruit. Together, they form a balanced Champagne blend with aromatic nuance, ageing potential, and expressive texture.

Grape: Sauvignon Blanc

Location: Loire Valley, Central Vineyards sub-region, Sancerre, France

Climate: Cool Continental

About the Domaine:

Domaine du Pré Semelé, located in a quiet valley near Sancerre, is a family-run estate led by brothers Julien and Clément Raimbault, with guidance from their father Rémy. Rejecting rigid labels, they follow a thoughtful, adaptive approach to viticulture, inspired by organic, biodynamic, and natural principles. Their philosophy centres on doing what's best for the vine and the wine, crafting expressive, terroir-driven cuvées with precision and care. This new generation brings fresh energy and elevated quality to the Domaine, honouring tradition while embracing innovation.

About the Region:

The Central Vineyards, easternmost in the Loire Valley, encompass eight AOCs including renowned Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé. With a continental climate, the region excels in crafting refined Sauvignon Blanc whites and elegant Pinot Noir reds and rosés from its diverse, hillside terroirs.

About the Grape:

Sauvignon Blanc is a vigorous, early ripening variety ideal for cool climates. It yields aromatic wines with high acidity, medium body, ranging from grassy, citrus notes to tropical fruit.

Grape: Chardonnay

Location: Burgundy, Côte de Beaune, Le Clos des Topes de Bizot, France

Climate: Moderate Continental

About the Domaine:

Domaine Chantal Lescure, founded in 1975, is a family-run estate spanning 19 hectares from Dijon to Meursault. Now led by Aymeric and Thibault Machard de Gramont, the domaine has embraced certified organic farming since 2006. With 35 plots producing 19 cuvées, the estate emphasizes terroir expression and minimal intervention. Vines on clay-limestone soils are manually harvested, gently pressed, and fermented with native yeasts in oak barrels, using little new wood. Long fermentations and sulfur-free vinification reflect a philosophy rooted in purity, precision, and respect for nature.

About the Region:

The Côte de Beaune, in southern Burgundy, is renowned for its refined Chardonnay. With limestone-rich soils, varied elevations, and a temperate climate, it produces wines of elegance and complexity with ageing potential.

About the Grape:

Chardonnay is an early-ripening, adaptable grape that thrives in diverse soils and climates. It yields wines ranging from crisp, mineral-driven styles to richer, fruit-forward expressions, with consistently high acidity and finesse—especially when grown on limestone-clay soils in cooler regions like Burgundy.

Location: Burgundy, Côte de Beaune, Savigny-les-Beaune Les Hauts Jarrons, France

Les Hauts Jarrons is one of 22 Premier Cru climats in the Savigny-les-Beaune appellation of Burgundy.

Climate: Moderate Continental

About the Winemaker:

Benjamin Leroux, once the youthful prodigy at Domaine du Comte Armand, has become one of Burgundy's most admired winemakers. After fifteen vintages at the domaine, he launched his own project in 2007, vinifying 30 hectares across the Côte d'Or, including eight organically and biodynamically farmed holdings. His philosophy blends classical precision with a spirit of quiet rebellion, crafting wines of purity, elegance, and expressive terroir. Leroux favours lutte raisonnée viticulture, native yeast fermentations, minimal intervention, and restrained use of oak. His cuvées, especially from lesser-known premier crus like Blagny, reveal a deep respect for site and soil, producing wines with minerality, finesse, and enduring charm.

About the Region:

The Côte de Beaune, in southern Burgundy, is renowned for its expressive Pinot Noir. With temperate climate, limestone-rich soils, varied elevations, and well-drained terrain foster ideal conditions for refined, terroir-driven wines.

About the Grape:

Pinot Noir is a delicate, early-ripening grape that thrives in cool climates. It produces wines with refined structure, vibrant acidity, and expressive aromas of red berries, violets, and earthy undertones. Its thin skin and subtle tannins yield elegant, nuanced wines with remarkable ageing potential.

About the Estate:

Founded in 1904 and renamed by Alfredo Prunotto in the 1920s, Prunotto is a historic estate rooted in the heart of Alba, between Barolo and Barbaresco. Known for pioneering single-vineyard vinification, the winery has long championed excellence and terroir expression. Under the stewardship of the Antinori family since 1994, Prunotto continues to uphold its legacy of meticulous craftsmanship and passion for wine. Surrounded by the rolling vineyards of the Langhe and Roero, the estate produces refined crus such as Barolo Bussia and Barbera d'Alba Pian Romualdo, reflecting a philosophy grounded in precision, authenticity, and respect for tradition.

About the Region:

Barolo DOCG, rooted in Piemonte's historic village of Barolo, produces powerful, age worthy wines from 100% Nebbiolo. Grown on sunlit slopes with varied soils, the wines show high acidity and aromatic depth. Long ageing, strict yields, and prestigious subzones define its regal reputation as "the wine of kings."

About the Grape:

Nebbiolo is a late-ripening, tannic grape known for its pale colour and remarkable aromatic complexity. It yields wines with high acidity, firm structure, and layered notes of rose, red cherry, and dried herbs, evolving into earthy, truffle-like depth with age.

About the Château:

Founded in 1452 and now part of the Roederer Collection, Château de Pez embodies centuries of winemaking heritage in Saint-Estèphe. With a philosophy rooted in precision and respect for terroir, each vineyard plot is cultivated, vinified, and tasted separately to highlight its unique character. The estate's elevated, gravel-rich soils and proximity to the Gironde estuary foster healthy vines and expressive fruit. Committed to biodiversity and sustainability, Pez integrates ecological practices such as hedgerows and beehives. Since 2005, the estate has pursued a refined, intellectual approach to winemaking, crafting elegant, fruit-driven wines that reflect the depth and identity of Saint-Estèphe with modern finesse.

About the Region:

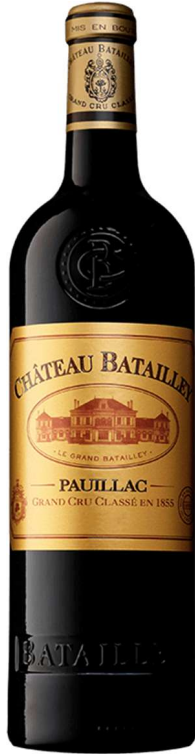

Saint-Estèphe, the northernmost and coolest of the four prestigious Left Bank Médoc commune. It has a reputation for rustic wines that need years in the bottle to soften the tannins. Warmer gravel soils and higher Merlot content yield more approachable styles.

About the Grapes:

The Bordeaux blend harmonizes Cabernet Sauvignon's structure and dark fruit, Merlot's softness and plum richness, and Cabernet Franc's aromatic lift and finesse. Together, they create balanced, age worthy wines with depth, elegance, and nuanced layers of flavour and texture.

About the Château:

Château Batailley, a historic Pauillac estate managed by the Casteja family, combines tradition with modern precision. Its 60-hectare vineyard, planted predominantly with Cabernet Sauvignon, is divided into 60 parcels across gravel, clay, and sandy soils, allowing for meticulous plot-by-plot vinification. With vines averaging 40 years and elevations reaching 27 meters, the estate harnesses its finest terroir for structured, age worthy wines. Committed to innovation, Château Batailley is exploring biodynamic practices on select parcels, reflecting a philosophy rooted in heritage, sustainability, and the pursuit of excellence.

About the Region:

Pauillac, a prestigious Left Bank appellation, is renowned for its Cabernet Sauvignon-dominant blends grown on gravel soils near the estuary. Its wines are high concentrated, structured, tannic with great longevity. Home to three First Growths, it leads in cru classé production.

About the Grapes:

The Bordeaux blend harmonizes Cabernet Sauvignon's structure and depth, Merlot's plush texture and ripe fruit, Cabernet Franc's aromatic lift and finesse, and Petit Verdot's colour and spice. Together, they create complex, balanced wines with elegance, longevity, and layered character.

At Vindeation, we believe great ideas—like beautiful wine—are meant to be shared. Our name fuses “vin” (French for wine) with “ideation”, reflecting our passion for curating bottles that spark conversation, creativity, and connection.

Our journey began with a single bottle of Burgundy, its elegance and depth, enjoyed among friends who understood that wine is more than a drink—it’s a story. The burgundy glass in our logo honours that moment and the timeless beauty of terroir.

Behind each pour is the soul of a grower, the precision of a winemaker, and generations of tradition. We celebrate the stories and details that make you pause mid-sip and raise your glass again. Whether you're swirling, sipping, or philosophizing, we're here to bring people together. Stay curious. Stay open. And never underestimate the power of a good glass.

Wines exclusively selected by CYKP to pair with the Vindeation dining menu. All wines are sourced from local distributors in Japan to minimise the effects of wine transportation.
